At the time and place indicated in this summons you must appear either in person or by an attorney and make your presence known to the court.

You need not file any written answer to the complaint of the plaintiff which has been herewith served upon you, unless ordered to do so by the court.

If you do not appear at the time and place indicated in this summons, the allegations of the complaint will be taken as confessed and judgment may be entered against you for an amount not to exceed the amount claimed.

In the event judgment is entered against you in the manner indicated in the above paragraph, if you have a valid defense to the claim, you may ask the court to vacate the judgment at any time within thirty (30) days after it was entered, but you must file an affidavit in writing with the court showing that you do have a valid defense and that you were not lax in prosecuting the same.

The case will be tried on the day set for your appearance unless otherwise ordered by the court.

If you wish to contest this claim, you must appear at the time and place stated herein, with the witnesses, books or documents needed to establish your defense.
